PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LG WILLIAMS 'STANDS TALL'

As I become an ever-prominent member in our nation's artistic and academic community - giving interviews, lectures and commencement speeches – I find myself increasingly besieged with two pressing questions: "In what ways would you like to impact the lives of people and the world?" and "What interests, issues and concerns do you advocate?"

 LG WILLIAMS, quoted during a recent interview at The University of Hawaii, Maona

(11/1/02) -- WAIKIKI -- Unlike many celebrity figures today that shun giving any indications of their personal beliefs for fear of losing lucrative commercial endorsements and corporate sponsorship, the Californian-Hawaiian Artist LG Williams, became today, the first artist of his generation to openly and publicly declared all his personal goals, principals and values.

A MAN OF PRINCIPLE

LG Williams is a Southerner who is deeply attached to his hometown, its people, and its culture. LG, according to New Orleans art critic Regina Boore, "harkens back to a time of deep local roots, working-class values, strong families, straight-arrow behavior, respectful artistic adversaries, and a vibrant representative democracy."

PERSONAL AND ARTISTIC HIGHLIGHTS

LG Williams is an Artist that has taught Art at numerous institutions, including the University of California, Berkeley, University of California, Davis and the California College of Arts and Crafts, besides actively showing his artwork throughout the United States. He is also a Curator and Founder of 1g of be verlyhills, a design firm with offices in Los Angeles, Waikiki and the Bay Area; and Co-Founder

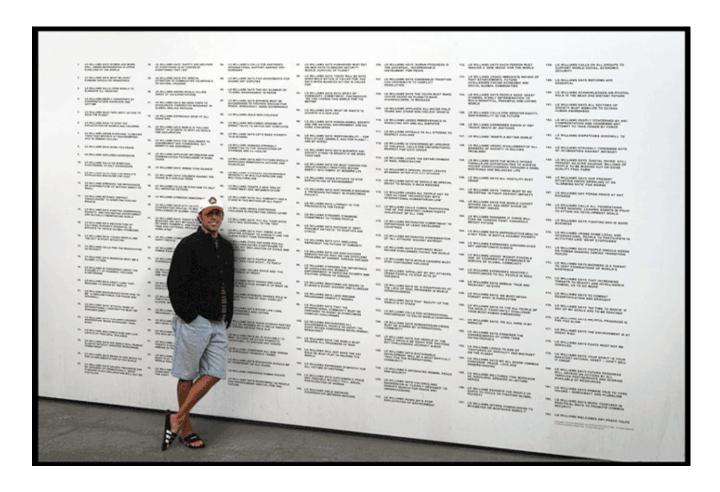

Artist LG Williams in front of his "STAND TALL: Declaration of Goals, Principals and Values."
