LG WILLIAMS AT LEMON ONE AWESOME SCULPTURE AND THAT'S ALL... Friday, September 11 – Friday, October 2, 2004 Reception for the Artist: Friday, Sept 17, 5:30-7:30pm

LEMON IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE an exhibition of one new sculpture by LG WILLIAMS as the fourth show for the new gallery on Lemon Road, Honolulu, Hawai'i.

The exhibition is comprised of ONE AWESOME SCULPTURE AND THAT'S ALL... completed especially for the gallery.

An astounding 30-page catalogue will accompany the exhibition edited by Ms. Heidi Ann Dunstheimer, RN, Chief Financial Officer, Lemon; Queens Hospital, Hawaii.

Heidi Dunstheimer RN, Chief Financial Officer for Lemon, said of the exhibition: "I am so delighted that the fourth show of this new gallery is with LG Williams. Since he is so cute and his art is so gosh-darn good, we will undoubtedly sell off this amazing new sculpture (at $40,000)! I feel especially honored that LG Williams has given Lemon permission to exhibit this bold new artwork."

Hawaiian Artist
Lawrence Williams

Currently, Lawrence Williams is an adjunct Art and Art History Instructor at University of Hawaii, Hawaii Pacific University, and Chaminade University.

Lemon would like to thank "Anonymou$" for Spon$oring this important, artistic-historic event, and Special Exhibitions Curator, Sergi Rakeofowwer, for his installation and exhibition savvy. By the way, all large cash donations to the gallery are accepted.

ABOUT LEMON: Lemon is the leading [i.e., only] advocate and venue for groundbreaking, avant-garde, 21st-century contemporary art in the great state of Hawai'i. Founded in 2004, it currently manages the careers of a significant number of the nations most prominent and gifted emerging and mid-career artists, including the entire Estate of LG Williams. The gallery, situated in the heart of beautiful Waikiki on Lemon Street, is strategically located right next to Waikiki's Kapiolani Park, Kuhio Beach, The Polynesian Youth Hostel, and Hula's Gay Bar and Grill.
